Rural Renaissance

Territorial declension of organic farming

Alberto Sturla

CREA - PB

www.ncp-biohorizon.net

BioHorizon project is funded by the European Commission - Grant Agreement no. 652637

Expertise offered: Over the years CREA-PB has developed solid experience in evaluating socio-economic impacts of organic farming, a topic that has deepened in national and international projects, providing useful guidance for decision makers e.g.: [http://www.europarl.europa.eu/RegData/etudes/STUD/2017/585905/IPOL_STU\(2017\)585905_EN.pdf585905_EN.pdf)].

Project objectives:

- Evaluate territorial experiences of effectiveness of organic farming in:
 - providing environmental public goods
 - favouring experiences of integrated landscape management (ILM)
- Identify the best institutional layouts that guarantee the most effective delivery of public goods and the setting up of successful experience of ILM.

Existing partners: AIAB – Italian association for organic farming

Partners sought: policy evaluation experts; institutional analysis experts; spatial analysis experts; representatives of organic districts and/or ecoregions
