About Enterprise Europe Network

Launched in February 2008 by the European Commission, the Enterprise Europe Network offers its support and services especially to small and medium enterprises (SMEs) in Europe. All activities of the network aim at promoting innovation and competitiveness in Europe.

The services offered by nearly 600 partner organisations from more than 60 European and non-European countries include partner searches for technology, research and business cooperation, technology audits, advice on European regulations, current programmes and funding opportunities.

Future Match 2017

International ICT Brokerage Event at CeBIT

20 - 24 March 2017
at CeBIT
Hannover / Germany

About Future Match

CeBIT is the world's leading fair for information and communication technologies (ICT) with 3.300 exhibitors and over 200.000 visitors in 2016 in Hannover.

For more information on CeBIT please visit www.cebit.de

Since 1999, the brokerage event Future Match at CeBIT has enabled enterprises and research organisations to find partners for commercial and technological cooperation, e.g.:

- technology transfer
- licensing
- research and development projects
- subcontracting and outsourcing
- sales and distribution agreements

Once more, companies, universities and research institutes are invited to use this opportunity to establish new cross-border contacts for future cooperation at Future Match 2017.

Some facts and figures from Future Match 2016:

- over 270 participants
- 35 countries represented
- More than 1.000 bilateral meetings

How to participate

- Register and submit a cooperation profile with a description of your offer or request online at:
www.futurematch.cebit.de
- Profiles are published in a constantly updated online catalogue.
- Browse interesting profiles from the catalogue and request meetings.
- Meetings of 30 minutes are scheduled by the network staff.
- Individual schedules will be sent out to the participants prior to the event.
- Bilateral meetings take place from 20 – 24 March at the Future Match stand.
