

Simon Meier

Investment Director
Roche Venture Fund

Simon Meier joined Roche in 2002 and is managing nine RVF investments (most private, some public) in diagnostic and biotech sectors. He acts as board observer on the boards of four investments, three in US, one in Europe. He was responsible for nine exited RVF investments.

Prior to joining Roche, Simon was responsible for Investment Management at GSL Galli, Schneider & Lehner AG a boutique venture capital partnership in St. Gallen focusing on early stage investment in a variety of technological areas.

Simon Meier has a MBA from University of St. Gallen (HSG) in Business and Finance with a focus on financial and capital markets.